

PROGRAM ASSISTANT INTERNSHIP

Overview

Kramden Institute, a Durham-based non-profit organization, has been working since 2003 to bridge the digital divide by providing technology tools and training. As a computer refurbisher, the organization collects thousands of devices each year, restores them, and distributes them back into the community. More than 54,000 computers have been distributed to students and adults across North Carolina, and more than 12,000 individuals have participated in educational and training programs.

The goal of the Program Assistant is to strengthen their understanding of how digital inclusion programs can positively impact a community. The intern will be an integral part of the Kramden team and will learn valuable skills in program planning and implementation, as well as client outreach and support. The intern will assist with day-to-day office functions and be given additional projects based on need and the individual's skills. Work for this position will take place primarily at the Kramden office in Durham, NC.
